ONE CENT

REAL SLAYER IN "RITUAL MURDER" CASE FOUND IN AMERICA

*Mendel Beilis Cleared—Wife of Government Official at Kiev Killed Boy Because He Had Discovered
Criminal Act of Her's—Famous Sleuth Got the Dope.*

New York, May 9.—The greatest murder mystery of this century has at last been cleared up.

The secret of the Beilis case, which has kept Russia in a furor for three years, and focused the attention of the world on Kiev, has been ferreted out by the famous "Sherlock Holmes of Russia."

America has furnished the clinching evidence.

Nicholas Krasovsky, the detective who ran it down, has just returned to Russia with affidavits that not only establish the innocence of Mendel Beilis beyond cavil, but fix the crime of killing Andrew Yuschinsky upon the real murderers.

Krasovsky has absolutely established the fact that it was Vera Cheriak, queen of a criminal gang in Kiev, who killed young Yuschinsky, assisted by her brother, Peter Singayevsky, and two other members of
